LUREMAX SPOONS

Fishing spoon is a classic type of lure for spin fishing. River rapids (a great place for fishing for asp), salmon rivers, hallow waters covered with thick vegetation, a trout pond or a forest lake – in all these fishing conditions a well chosen spoon will be indispensable. Modern high-precision molding technologies allow creating lures with an original body shape, which gives each Luremax spoon a unique swimming action.

The front side of it has a “diamond cut” pattern, which creates an acoustic effect in the water. “Diamond” patterns reflect more light than a smooth, polished metal surface, which increases the visibility of the lure in poor light conditions. It remains stable with fast retrieve or in fast water. The spoon is recommended for zander, perch, asp, chub and salmonids.

ECOGROUP company has introduced to the Russian market its new brand of soft plastic lures called LureMax. When developing our own product range, we have chosen the most popular shapes of plastic baits designed by the best fishing tackle producers in the world. Our company experts, as well as experts of the fishing market, regularly test different kinds of baits. As a result, only the best quality items get into the LureMax range. When designing the new shapes, our development team always come up with new ideas, apply original solutions and technologies and use their vast fishing experience.

HD ACTIVE ORGANIC ATTRACTANTS

Active organic attractants based on natural organic extracts. The impregnation of a soft bait with attractants and scent additives gives it an attractive taste and scent. The scent spreads in the water attracting fish from greater distances.

FLOATING FORMULA

Lures with positive buoyancy are very effective. In some situations this property plays a key role in attracting fish and stimulating it to strike. During the pause, such baits get into a position perpendicular to the bottom. In this position predators are much more likely to attack the bait. The baits hang in the water much longer or even float to the surface if light hooks are used. Floating silicone offers more opportunities when being used with leader rigs (Texas rig or Carolina rig).

HOOK PLACEMENT HOLES

A special technological hole or groove designed for the hook to be inserted into the lure body. When putting an offset hook into a soft bait, you can insert the shank into a special groove, so that the shank will be securely hidden in it and will not become entangled in weeds. Moreover, when a fish bites, the hook easily comes out of the bait's body and sets reliably into the fish's mouth.

MAX SOUND EFFECT

Soft plastic baits can have different mechanical designs (ribbed bodies, holes, noise chambers etc.) allowing for additional sound vibrations during retrieve. These vibrations are detected by the lateral line of a fish, thereby attracting its attention.

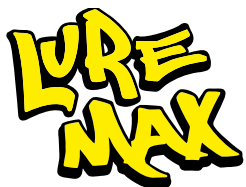

PRO EATABLE SOFT BAITS ATTRACTIVE SHAPE

"Eatable soft plastic lure" is a soft bait impregnated with a fish attractant based on natural organic extracts (for example, fish, and shrimp). When a fish grabs the flavored lure, it keeps the bait in its mouth for a longer period, giving the angler more time to fell the strike and set the hook. When the lure is being retrieved, it leaves a scent trail that attracts fish from a long distance. Biologically active attractants are added during the process of production of soft plastic material, so it retains its effect for as long as possible.

LIFELIKE DESIGN

First, the body shapes of soft plastic baits imitate fish or other natural aquatic food sources. Secondly, LureMax soft bait goes through the unique colour injection process due to which it does not look like a painted object but as a real living thing! All these factors allow to achieve a lifelike swimming action and a very lifelike look of the bait that will never cause any suspicion among fish.

LT37 TROUT SERIES

10 pieces per pack

Sharpening on the principle of a needle point (Niddle point) / Forged hook / Bending of a hook point to the side / With a large eye

High quality hooks for equipping trout lures. The sharpest sting realized as a result of the modern chemical sharpening, allows you to confidently strike the fish, regardless of whether you use a line or monofilament line. The hooks are made of very strong and thin wire. Due to the minimum weight of the wire and the correct geometric shape, hooks of this series can be used with any kind of lure without affecting their game. The colored drop on the shank of the hook imitates caviar - a favorite delicacy of many fish species.

TUNGSTEN JIG SINKER

Used in jig riggings. Wolframium cheburashkas have compact sizes compared to lead and sinks faster due to its high density. The high stiffness of wolframium increases the sensitivity of the riggings. Another advantage of wolframium is its high environmental friendliness. These properties will appeal to those who love fishing with microjig lures.
